Share an apartment with other students learning English in Malta. It is the most cost effective type of accommodation and the preferred choice from students studying English with us. Living together with other students will help you to make friends and above all help you to improve your English. These apartments consist of a Block of 5 apartments, just down the road from the school, around 2 minutes away on foot. Each apartment has 1 triple bedroom, 3 twin bedroom, 4 bathrooms and 1 common kitchen with a living area.

Each Flat is equipped with:

- Fridge / Freezer
- Washing Machine
- Cooker
- Television (with Multiplus)
- Iron
- Air-conditioning System
- Single Beds (2m x 1m)
- European 3 pin power points, 240Volts
- FREE Unlimited WIFI and ADSL points
- Independent bathroom for every bedroom
- A study table per person

On average students pay between 15 - 25Euro per week for water and electricity. However this will depend on your consumption and the number of people in your apartment. Bed sheets and towels will be supplied to students, the towels will be changed every other day, and the sheets will be changed twice a week. Although students are responsible for keeping clean their own apartments, we will provide a maid service twice a week.

am Language Studio is committed to giving students from all over the world a truly international experience when learning English in Malta. Staying in a shared apartment with other students from different parts of the world is an integral part of YOUR language stay. Yet living with other people can only work if there are standards and a level of behaviour that is sensitive to the environment and, more importantly, to the people sharing the accommodation.

For this reason am Language Studio binds students staying in a shared apartment to clear guidelines which need to be respected by students choosing this accommodation option. Please ensure to read this carefully before choosing this type of accommodation. Should you encounter any difficulties with your apartment am Language Studio will solve the problem in 48hours from the receipt of the written complaint.
